

THE POWER OF INTELLIGENCE

Web Application Developer – Boulder, CO

Choice Ticketing Systems is a privately held software company that is a premier provider of ticketing, fundraising and marketing solutions for performing arts, higher education and entertainment venues in North America. Its new cloud-based offering provides its clients an integrated view of each patron and his or her interaction with the organization.

Located in the amazing town of Boulder, Colorado, Choice offers a dynamic work environment with increasingly levels of responsibility based on an individual's level of accomplishment.

Please contact us if this sounds like the kind of place you would like to be. We would like to talk with you!

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work as an integral team member in our Development Team to enhance our new cloud-based offering by further developing the core offering
- Develop new features based upon customer engagement and selected, customer-driven enhancement requests
- Provide feedback to other Development Team members as part of a collaborative work environment
- Adhere to Development Team standards regarding product development, including product documentation

REQUIREMENTS

- Demonstrated record of developing commercial standard, ecommerce applications
- Demonstrated proficiency with core technologies, including Java Script, PHP and MySQL
- Demonstrated knowledge of Customer Relationship Management software
- Degree in Computer Science or related discipline
- Outstanding verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to work in challenging, high-paced environment

HOW TO APPLY

- Send your resume to Careers@choiceticketing.com
- Please put the position in the subject line
- In your email, let us know what gets you excited about the company you are working for and why you think you would be a great addition to the Choice Team

THANKS!

1200 28th Street, Suite 305
Tel: 303/402-0400
www.choiceticketing.com

Boulder, CO 80303
Fax: 303/402-9483
careers@choiceticketing.com